

Savoring the Word for Sunday, January 22, 2017

Luke 5:1-11 – Jesus Calls the First Disciples

Memory Verse – Luke 5:10b

“Then Jesus said to Simon, ‘Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people.’”

Reflection Questions

1. Who first shared faith with you? What do you remember of that experience?
2. What is the hardest thing you have ever had to do in your faith life?
3. Who is someone who needs to hear the Gospel from you in deed and in word?

Prayer

Lord, help me to be open to sharing faith with others. Give me opportunities to share and grant me the courage to do it.

Pray specifically for people in your life who might need hear the hope of Christ

Amen.

How to read it this week

Monday – Read it silently to yourself

Tuesday – Read it aloud on your own

Wednesday – Read it with others and discuss

Thursday – Read it in a different translation (biblegateway.com is a great site for this)

Friday - How can you express the passage in writing, in images,

Saturday – Take 10 minutes and think back to what you have heard through the week.

Sunday – Hear the Word in community in Worship
